Is a Bess project "stable" in China?

A BESS project in China deployed by Hyperstrong, the largest system integrator in the domestic market. Image: Hyperstrong. China has reached well over 70GW of installed BESS capacity, while DC block prices appear to be 'stable', a local metals price agency said.

How much energy storage does Bess have?

Including all energy storage, its total installed capacity is now 137GW, meaning that 'new energy storage', mostly BESS, now exceeds its pumped hydro capacity. That is thanks to 43.7GW/109.8GWh of 'new energy storage' that was installed in 2024, CNESA said.

How much does a Bess system cost?

As of most recent estimates, the cost of a BESS by MW is between $200,000 and $450,000, varying by location, system size, and market conditions. This translates to around $200 - $450 per kWh, though in some markets, prices have dropped as low as $150 per kWh.

What is a Bess & 1C energy storage system?

PetroChina's procurement was split into four sections, 0.25C, 0.5C, and 0.5C grid-forming BESS and 1C energy storage systems. A C-rate is another way to describe discharge duration, by showing how much of a BESS' capacity is discharged each hour of full power output. So a 0.25C is a 4-hour system, a 1C is a 1-hour system.
